

Children's Room Program Assistant

The Children's Department is often creating programs, storytimes, crafts and activities for patrons ages 0-13 years of age.

At times, we can use volunteers to help support some of these activities. This could include cutting and assembling crafts, assembling materials for programs, assisting live programs, assisting in internal library projects as needed